Dear NYU Students,

Our research team, consisting of Kevin Zhang, Charles Thomas, and Rachel Greenstadt is recruiting participants for a study on Human Economics in the Security Space. We are looking to recruit participants with both varied computer knowledge and an interest in cybersecurity's impact on individuals and industry. The sessions of this study will take place either virtually over Zoom or physically at a campus building. The sessions of the study would take around 30 minutes, and will be proctored TBD dates in the fall of 2021.

If you are interested, please fill in this form with your details. Please note that although you are receiving this email and will be required to enter your NetID on the form, we will not retain any of your information - the information is solely in tracking attendance and communicating study procedures.

Thank you,

Kevin Zhang
